

Latin II
 Quarter 2, Week 3
 Beginning October 30

Day	In class	At Home
Monday: Eastside Tuesday: Mandarin	Due: None Quiz: p. 362 Vocabulary  Reading, p. 366, "De Sancto Andreas Bobola" p. 367-368 Comparative adjectives See Grammar, p. 20-21 p. 368 Vocabulary (mostly review) Exercise 67-71 and note
Tuesday: Eastside Wednesday: Mandarin		Learn vocabulary on p. 368 and review comparative adjectives
Wednesday: Eastside Thursday: Mandarin	DUE: None QUIZ: p. 368 vocabulary and phrases/sentences with comparative adjectives Exercise 73, 76 Bible translation, 1 John 1
Thursday: Eastside Friday: Mandarin		Translate 1 John 2:1-6. You may use the grammar book, dictionaries, etc. BUT DON'T COPY IT OUT OF THE ENGLISH BIBLE!!! However, you may use your English Bible to check and correct your work
Friday: Eastside Monday: Mandarin
Monday: Eastside Tuesday: Mandarin	Due: 1 John 2:1-6 Translation Quiz: None

Grammar Cards

Number	Front	Back
126	Three degrees of an adjective	positive, comparative, and superlative
127	Rule for regular comparison of Adjectives	Comparative: add ior, ius to the stem of the positive Superlative: Add issums, issima, issimum to the stem of the positive
128	Comparison of Adjectives ending in -er	Adjectives ending in -er add -rimus to the nominative masculine singular to form the positive. The comparatives follow the

Latin II
Quarter 2, Week 3
Beginning October 30

		regular rule
129	Comparison of similis , dissimilis , facilis , humilis , difficulis , and gracilis	They add -limus to form the superlative. The comparatives follow the regular rule.
130	Comparison of adjectives ending in -us preceded by a vowel	The comparatives and superlative are formed with the adverbs -magis and -maxime .