Essays and Projects

No. 1: Due October 18/19 Describe the role that the rage of Achilles has played in the Iliad up to this point. When Achilles agrees to fight, has his rage subsided, or has it been transferred to another enemy? Explain. How would the Greeks respond to the statement of James “For man’s anger does not achieve the righteousness that God desires (James 1:20)?

No. 2: Due October 30/November 1 (approximately 5 paragraphs). Summarize the story of Agamemnon’s return home from the Trojan War. How does Agamemnon’s story relate to the Odyssey.

No. 3: Due November 15/16. Odyssey Creative Project. See instructions on Weebly.

*No. 4: Not due until January 31-February 1, 2018: In the Finding Truth study guide (p. 331-373), there are numerous questions that instruct you to construct a dialogue. Your task is to construct a dialogue (at least two pages) and be prepared to read it in class. You may have one partner in this project. There are some examples of this at <https://carm.org/apologetics-dialogues>. You must create your own dialogue answering one of the study questions that has the word "dialog."
